

ShopEase Frequently Asked Questions

How can I track my order?

Provide your Order ID to customer support. If the order has shipped, a tracking number may be available.

How long does shipping take?

Standard delivery usually takes 3–5 business days after dispatch.

Can I return an item?

Eligible products can generally be returned within 14 days of delivery, subject to the return policy.

When will I receive my refund?

Approved refunds are normally processed within 5–7 business days after the returned product is received and approved.

Does every product have a warranty?

No. Warranty coverage depends on the product. Selected electronics have a limited 12-month warranty.

Can I cancel an order?

Cancellation may be possible while an order is still processing. Contact support as soon as possible.
